The Adviser is responsible for producing political and situational reporting and analysis for the consumption of the Council, EEAS and EC HQ services, resident EUMS in BiH and other external recipients as directed. The Adviser is equally responsible for the coordination of internal briefing notes to inform and guide specific actions of the mandate implementation and particularly for the official visits and meetings of the EUSR/Head of Delegation and the Deputy Head. As such, the Adviser performs an important central function through which different office sections and staff collaborate to produce coordinated analytical reports/briefings. The Adviser additionally provides support for the organization of regular meetings with the EU Heads of Missions in BiH, attendance at other formal in-country meetings amongst international actors such as the OHR PIC/SBA/BOP meetings, and support to high-level EU visits. The Adviser works closely and collaboratively with the executive office as well as the front offices of the EUSR/HoD and the DHoD to jointly ensure internal awareness of meetings with external actors requiring briefings and at elbow support by knowledgeable expert staff as required.

The Adviser is a key member of the Political Team working under the direct supervision of the Head of the Political Department and alongside other members of the Political Section.

The EUSR modus operandi and internal organisation may evolve in accordance with decisions of the Council of the European Union and in relation to the EUSR's mandate in BiH. The duties and responsibilities outlined below are therefore typical but not exclusive and the EUSR reserves the right to reasonably amend the duties and responsibilities here within.

The Adviser will be skilled in political and situational analysis and will have good knowledge of the political landscape of BiH and an up-to-date knowledge of the EU policies related to BiH. The Adviser will be familiar with the EU institutional structures as they relate to BiH and in particular the Council, EEAS and DG NEAR. The Adviser will have experience in coordination with multiple contributors to produce synthesized and comprehensive final outputs. Importantly the Adviser will be highly adept in their written English and will be highly skilled in the art of concisely written political analysis.
